

NCMB wins 2006 Cheering Competition

"Move! Give way! NCMB is on their way!" This is National Conciliation and Mediation Board's (NCMB) battle cry during the opening ceremonies of the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) Sportsfest as they compete with the other offices of the Department during the cheering squad competition last September 25, 2006 at the Ninoy Aquino Stadium, Malate, Manila.

Together with NCMB are the Technical Education and Skills Authority (TESDA), Bureau of Labor and Employment Statistics (BLES) and the Office of the Secretary (OSEC). Among these offices, NCMB ranked first which was followed by TESDA, BLES and OSEC.

After bringing home the bacon during the 1998 DOLE Sportsfest Cheering Competition, NCMB made it again, this time, with a blast!
